

Falling Into You

By Sean Norris

E B C#m A
How can I sing a song of hate when all I'm given is grace?
E B C#m A
How can I be full of bitterness when your sweet love is all I taste?
C#m B E
And I, I'm falling into you.

How can I be so blind when your truth has opened my eyes?

How can I condemn my friend when I'm forgiven in the end?

And I, I'm falling into you.

Your blood has cleansed me from any stain.

Though I fall you will remain.
