

I'll Bring You Home

By Sean Norris

Em D G
Can you hear the invitation to all?
Children rise, rise from the fall
Can you wait any longer for freedom?
I promise you I'll bring you home

Trust my Word to give you life and hope
Trust my Son to save you forever more
There is nothing too big for me to take
There is nothing that can steal you away

A D G D A
Come, come, come my daughters and sons
D G D A
Come, come my beloved ones

Counter:
I am your Father, come.
